

Kick-start career development with

GCIS Junior

GCIS Junior is an online system of career development information and activities that sets students on the road to planning for high school, college, and work life.

GCIS Junior is designed around the questions:

Who Am I?

Where Am I Going?

How Do I Get There?

GCIS Junior information, activities, and portfolios...

- Are designed to serve as an introduction to career development
- Include quick, easy-to-read occupation descriptions
- Offer interest surveys and a financial "Reality Check"
- Pass on tips through interviews and videos of real people at work
- Include dozens of activities to help figure out . . .

- Who they are, where they're going, and how to get there!

GCIS Junior Occupational descriptions are...

Shorter, snappier, and with all the details for easy comprehension.

The question-and-answer approach gives direct answers to:

- What skills and abilities will I need?
- What are the working conditions?
- Will there be jobs in the future?
- How do I prepare?
- How much does it pay?

...and more

GCIS Junior features...

- The new Georgia public high school graduation requirements
- New career development worksheets
- Basic level Interest Survey
- Mini Occupations
- Statewide access for all of Georgia's public schools and agencies*

...and more

starting March 2008, sneak peek period*

Portfolio

GCIS Junior users establish their own GCIS online portfolio, which they continue using through high school and into college. As they build their portfolio, it will include their Student Course Plan, links to their favorite GCIS files, a resume/job application information sheet, and records of their thoughts. GCIS Portfolios help students identify their strengths, accomplishments, goals, and ideas for the future.
